

Wet Nose Canine Presents Agility Seminars with Anne Andrie

Friday September 23, 2022

Fri 9/23/22 8AM-12PM

Course Survival Workshop

How to Run Clean and Stay out of Your Head!

This should be for dogs who are familiar with all equipment. This session we will be 'actively' practicing staying 100% focused on the dog while handling; we will be discussing strategies you can practice to not let up under pressure; then trying them on course - expect loads of laughs and fun!

Fri 9/23/22 1PM-5PM

Novice Dog Workshop

This is geared towards the novice dog and/or handler: we will be working with jumps and tunnels. The goal of this workshop is work on smooth negotiation of the dog through 5-10 obstacles. Anne will help each team individually, and provide further homework for teams to continue to progress after the seminar.

$150 for each working session

$75 for each auditing session

Anne's youngest dog, "Zero G" has enjoyed several trips to the podiums of ISC, Premier and UKI National and International Cups, Premier Cups, and USDAA Regional Championships. Anne is an enthusiastic instructor, and is adept at fine tuning the top level teams as well as novice dogs and/or handlers just beginning their agility training. Anne's style is motivational and fun; she uses positive, clear training and handling explanations, using techniques that work best for dogs of any size or breed. Anne's goal is for handlers to learn new skills, understand the: 'why did my dog do that?' and have fun while doing it!
